

UEN-TV Highlights - September 2020

Science Explorations

Camille: The Original Monster Storm

Wednesday, September 2 at 9 p.m.

What lessons might this test of the Gulf Coast's resilience have for a time of increasingly frequent destructive storms?

The Last Artifact

Monday, September 7 at 9 p.m.

Discover the story behind how the kilogram, last of the SI units to be defined by a physical artifact, came to be recently redefined.

Impossible Planet

Mondays at 9 p.m. beginning September 14

Explore some of Earth's most incredible natural phenomena, from luminescent, electric-blue waves crashing ashore to mysterious fairy circles as far as the eye can see.

Troubled Waters: A Turtle's Tale

Monday, September 21 at 8 p.m.

Dive into the environmental challenges threatening sea turtles and what they may mean for humans.

Hispanic Heritage Month

Beyond La Bamba

Wednesday, September 16 at 8:30 p.m.

Follow a young musician who leaves home to try making his mark with the traditional folk music style from Veracruz known as son jarocho.

My Neighborhood: Pilsen

Thursday, September 24 at 9 p.m.

See how community engagement and activism transformed a predominantly Mexican-American neighborhood in Chicago.

Re-Evolution: The Cuban Dream

Saturday, September 26 at 8 p.m.

Walk the streets of Havana for unique perspectives on a culture of revolution that is more nuanced than meets the eye.

Major League Cuban Baseball

Saturday, September 26 at 9 p.m.

Experience the deep cultural and emotional connection of Cubans to America's national pastime, baseball.

Learning through Diversity

Under Four Trees

Saturday, September 12 at 8 p.m.

Find out how a Zulu community in rural South Africa grew their school from a small grove of four trees to an educational complex for 960 children.

Guru Nanak: The Founder of Sikhism – Life and Legacy

Saturday, September 19 at 8 p.m.

Learn about the 15th century teacher and activist who founded the Sikh faith—the world's fifth largest religion.

18 Voices Sing Kol Nidre

Sunday, September 27 at 8 p.m.

Celebrate Yom Kippur with the story of the Kol Nidre, Judaism's most sacred prayer.

An Answer from Akron

Wednesday, September 30 at 9 p.m.

Get inspired by a group of young men who, at the height of the Civil Rights movement, worked to provide affordable housing to community members displaced by an aggressive urban renewal program.